Dear Jason:

It is my honor and distinct pleasure to nominate Meg Schneider for the Emerging Woman of Influence Award. I have been acquainted with Meg ever since she began working for the Greater Des Moines Partnership. Over the years, I have observed her grow in her role at the Partnership.

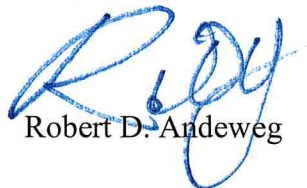

It has been heartwarming to see Meg grow personally and professionally through the years that I have known her. She has continually taken on new challenges to increase her leadership abilities. In fact, Meg and I were in the same Leadership Iowa class. She has also worked very hard to obtain professional designations. Meg also gives back to the community in so many different ways through her volunteer efforts.

What impresses me the most about Meg, though, is that through all of her success and her numerous volunteer events, her family is first and foremost. She is truly well-grounded and centered.

When I think of an emerging woman of influence, I think of Meg Schneider. In all that she has accomplished so far, I envision even greater things from Meg in the coming years.

I can't think of anyone else more deserving of this honor.

Very truly yours,

Robert D. Andeweg
