

Tom Gayman
Senior Vice President at R&R Realty Group

Real estate is a people business. Relationships are built on trust, commitment, knowledge, integrity, and experience. Tom Gayman demonstrates a passion and dedication to assist all clients, companies, and individuals beyond their real estate needs and expectations. Tom's thirty year commercial real estate career has been centered around building long lasting relationships. His passion is providing efficient, cost effective real estate solutions. Tom has accomplished hundreds of transactions throughout his distinguished career. His defining motivation is to always treat others as they would want to be treated, an elementary yet crucial business ethic.

Tom's combination of experience and market knowledge has helped R&R Realty Group in maintaining high occupancies in an ever growing 6 million square feet portfolio. Tom is a CPM (Certified Property Manager), Licensed Broker, State of Iowa, a member of the Institute of Real Estate Management, and for 29 years has worked for R&R Realty Group headquartered in West Des Moines, Iowa. Tom is an active sales and leasing representative in all areas of the company scope, including industrial, flex, and office space. He is currently the marketing team leader for Realty Marketing Group's 1.6 million-square-foot industrial and warehouse book of business. He has worked with numerous local, regional, and national companies throughout the years and it is always his positive attitude and fortitude which enabled him to produce results and favorable outcomes for his clients.

Tom was born and raised in the Des Moines, Iowa area. He has resided in Urbandale for over thirty years. Commitment to his community is ever present. He is former President of the Urbandale Chamber of Commerce, a two-term elected city councilman to the Urbandale City Council, and active in many volunteer organizations. Relationships do matter, which has been and continues to be the focal point of Tom's successes.
