

JOHN LEDER
ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE, PC
HOLMES MURPHY & ASSOCIATES

John Leder is well respected among clients and coworkers for his integrity, loyalty, and dedication. He takes any means necessary to find the best possible solutions to customer challenges and then provides the support and assistance needed for success. In addition to providing attentive customer service, John improves his clients' bottom-line profits. He is driven to produce profitable results for his clients and ensures a smooth ride along the way.

After graduating from the University of Richmond, Virginia, he worked as a sales representative for Xerox Corporation throughout the New York metro area. John has also worked for Flynn Wright and as the regional manager for Danka.

Staying involved in the Des Moines community is important to John. He is currently on the Board of Directors for not only Courage League Sports, but also Variety – The Children's Charity of Iowa. In addition, John volunteers his time as a Special Needs Healthcare Advocate with Gillette Children's Specialty Healthcare in an effort to improve the availability and awareness of specialized medical care to children and their families combatting complex medical conditions.

Outside of the office, John enjoys playing golf, running, and spending time with his wife, Emily, and their three children.
