

To whom it may concern,

I would like to nominate Christy Jones for the 40 Under 40 Class of 2014.

I first met Christy through her business – RJones Collision. She truly cares about her customers and provides quality service.

I then joined the Des Moines chapter of Executive's Women International (EWI) representing the company I work for. Christy was currently a member and very active in the group. EWI is a group that not only supports and encourages growth of its members through education, but also provides scholarships to women outside its membership seeking degrees to better themselves. EWI is very involved in several charities which allowed Christy and I to volunteer time together. Christy is very energetic and passionate in all that she does.

Christy is currently on EWI's leadership team in charge of our directory, Bylaws and Website.

I highly recommend Christy to be honored with being in your class of 2014.

Thank you,
