

REED MCMANIGAL

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE

Reed McManigal is an Account Executive for Holmes Murphy's Property Casualty Division. He works out of our corporate headquarters in Waukee. A graduate from the University of Iowa, Reed earned his B.B.A in Marketing as well as an Entrepreneurship Certificate from the Tippie College of Business. After graduation, he earned his law degree at the Iowa College of Law where he graduated with honors. Reed practiced law in Iowa for five years devoting the majority of his practice to professional negligence litigation. He is past President of the Young Lawyer's Division of the Iowa State Bar Association.

Reed's legal expertise contributes to his role in creating solutions to meet his clients' needs with his creative yet analytical approach to insurance issues. Reed's legal background and training is beneficial to clients in the areas of policy interpretation, simplifying complex problems, and claims resolution. Reed transitioned to Holmes Murphy in 2015 and is a graduate of Holmes Murphy's Brainery Leadership Development Program - Class of 2015.

Active in his community, Reed is involved in the Mason City Public Schools Foundation, the Iowa State Bar Association, the United Way, and the Unity Point Young Advisory Council, and is a Board member of the Alzheimer's Association of Iowa. He was nominated and accepted to the Greater Des Moines Leadership Institute Class of 2017. Reed is devoted to his family and enjoys spending quality time with his wife, Christina, and their son, Banks, and daughter, Faye.

YOU MIGHT NOT KNOW...

Reed's top 5 strengths (term used loosely):

1. Time management.
2. Having fun.
3. Appreciating patience.
4. Simplification.
5. Repetitive jokes.

Something you might not know about Reed...

He was a gym teacher at Willowwind Elementary during law school and a "wrapper" (as in sandwich) at Baldy's during college in Iowa City.

