Re: Cailin Stockdale

Dear Sir or Madam:

It is my pleasure to support Cailin Stockdale's nomination for the 2014 Forty under 40 class. I first met Cailin at a Greater Des Moines Leadership Institute function. I was instantly drawn to her passion for the class' project, the remodeling of the Amanda the Panda facility. She co-chaired the fundraising for her class, which exceeded its capital campaign goal of $125,000. I met with her onsite, and saw firsthand not only her drive and willingness to raise the funds, but also her deep commitment to Amanda the Panda's mission of serving grieving children and families.

It was through this process that I learned of her "day" job as Director of Communication and Resource Development for the Boys and Girls Club of Central Iowa. Cailin set up a tour of their facility for one of my business groups, and it was obvious as she explained the various programs, introduced her co-workers and most importantly interacted with the children that she was extraordinarily gifted.

These are just two of the many examples of how Cailin has (and will continue to) helped the greater Des Moines community. She has also raised emergency funds for Red Cross relief efforts following the flood of 2008, planned and implemented the Baker Club at Amos Hiatt Middle School, and assisted in stabilizing the financial position of the Boys and Girls Club.

In addition, she is a genuinely nice person, and a pleasure to be around. I proudly recommend her for Forty under 40!

Sincerely,
