Dear Mr. Swanson,

I am writing to recommend Michael McInerney for the 2015 Forty Under 40 Award. This young man brings and incredible focus and enthusiasm to everything he does, allowing him to take on multiple responsibilities without losing his energy.

I was first introduced to Mike when he was issued an invitation to membership in the Des Moines Embassy Club by one of our young Board Members. Immediately when I began calling his references, I knew he was a great find. One reference informed me that he had taken on the treasurer position of the Polk County Republicans, a role that the organization had been unable to keep filled by seasoned professionals because the task was too great. When Mike stepped in, he unraveled the finances and was able to hand over clean, easy-to-read books for his successor.

Since joining the Des Moines Embassy Club in April, Mike has become a trusted advisor. He has taken a leadership role in our newly-formed AMP Young Professionals Committee, where he has served to plan numerous events for our Members while still finding time to sponsor his friends into membership at the Club. This is a key program for us as the Club works toward a brand that is welcoming to young professionals. He has been so successful on AMP, he has recently been invited to join the Club's Membership Committee and so far has been full of great ideas. Mike never turns down responsibility and is the first to volunteer when help is needed.

What is most special about Mike is that his passion for the projects he takes on is infectious. One can always expect a consistent positive attitude and determination to succeed from him, and I have seen him become a motivator to his peers. I ask that you would please consider Mike McInerney for recognition as a 2015 Forty Under 40 recipient.

Sincerely,

Jamie Campos
