Ryan Jensen began his career in real estate with Hubbell Realty Company managing their commercial land portfolio. He joined CBRE|Hubbell Commercial in 2008 to provide his expanding client base with custom real estate solutions to meet their strategic goals. His sole focus is the acquisition and disposition of investment properties including multifamily, retail, office, and industrial. He continuously produces winning results for his clients. The 2011 ICREA rising star has a reputation of being aggressive, hard working, honest, and reliable. He continually produces winning results the kind you expect from a leader.

"By combining my skill set and work ethic with the global platform provided by CBRE|Hubbell Commercial, I am able to effectively produce the results my clients expect."

Ryan has been involved in over $100 million of investment transactions Since 2011 and is quickly becoming Iowa's go to investment professional. Ryan is CCIM designated and is licensed in the State of Iowa.
