

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am familiar that the local council gives Meredith Emerging Woman of Influence award annually to its women who perform outstandingly well in that particular year.

This year I would like to recommend the name of Ms. Stephanie Thill for this year's award in recognition to her determined efforts in assisting the community members for the last few years.

Stephanie Thill is a devoted public servant and genuinely cares about the citizens Cherokee County. Stephanie is uniquely qualified as she has hands-on experience in all facets of the Auditors Office. Stephanie is the type of leader who will roll up her sleeves and work alongside her team. Stephanie's work ethic is unmatched and she will work tirelessly to ensure efficient and effective operations for all citizens. Stephanie excels in customer service and is committed to fair and equal treatment for everyone. Some people are leaders in title only, Stephanie is a true leader and her in-depth knowledge and passion for helping all people makes her the right choice Meredith Emerging Woman of Influence award.

Thanking You

Yours truly,

Jon E. Christner, CMfgE
