Re: Letter of Recommendation for Lindsey Buchheit
Meredith Emerging Woman of Influence

To Whom It May Concern:

I am proud to be able to recommend Lindsey Buchheit as an Emerging Woman of Influence. I have known Lindsey Buchheit for several years and have watched her grow from her position as an Associate Attorney in a local law firm to a successful entrepreneur of her own firm. She has recently built a beautiful new office in Sergeant Bluff, Iowa and is building an effective and successful business.

Lindsey is the type of lawyer that makes me proud to be part of this profession. She consistently puts the interests of her clients over her own and makes her advice and counsel practical, creative, and concise. She takes a holistic approach to working with clients and their problems and seeks workable and effective solutions. She is always willing to share her expertise and experience with fellow attorneys through networking and mentoring.

Lindsey is also an effective mediator, providing mediation services designed to help opposing parties to discuss their differences and find their own solution.

Lindsey balances her busy career with her active home life. She and her husband are effective partners and are raising two delightful little girls. Lindsey is also an athlete and spends many weekends running 10Ks.

Lindsey has laid a very firm foundation for a career that will take her far. She has founded one of the best new businesses in Sergeant Bluff and she is becoming known throughout Woodbury County. I expect that Lindsey and Buchheit Law will continue to grow and become even more involved in the community.

Sincerely,

Deborah J. Cook
